CUSTOMER agrees to purchase from the CORPORATION and the CORPORATION AGREES TO SELL TO CUSTOMER his entire petroleum requirements at the specified address commencing on above noted delivery commencement date and continuing until such time as one of the parties hereto shall give to the other a prior written notice of termination of not less than thirty (30) days.

CUSTOMER shall pay for each petroleum delivery at the CORPORATION'S then posted price in force at the time and place of delivery, which price may be changed without prior notice.

CUSTOMER shall give a written notice to the CORPORATION of CUSTOMER'S intent to vacate the premises.

Purchases are due and payable on receipt of the monthly statement unless on Budget Plan. A credit cost of 2 % per month (26.82 % per annum) shall apply to any past due balance. Such credit cost may be modified from time to time by the CORPORATION upon notice. The customer will be responsible to pay any additional charges incurred should the account be passed to a third party collection agency.

The CORPORATION shall endeavour to maintain at all times a sufficient petroleum supply in the CUSTOMER'S tank(s). However, CUSTOMER shall forthwith advise the CORPORATION should oil level in the tank(s) drop below normal, and shall inform the CORPORATION in writing of any modification affecting the storage capacity of the tank(s) or CUSTOMER'S heating needs, so that deliveries can be planned accordingly.

The CORPORATION shall not be responsible for any damage resulting from any inadequate reserve level of petroleum products if delivery address remains unoccupied by an individual for more than 48 hours, or if, for any reason whatsoever, oil consumption is unusually high or if, for any reason beyond the CORPORATION'S control, the CORPORATION is prevented or delayed in making its petroleum deliveries.
